- 4.5 No owner shall remove or allow any other person, with the exception of a Licensing Officer, a Municipal Law Enforcement Officer, or a Police Officer to remove their register from the kennel.

5. KENNEL PRACTICES AND ANIMAL CARE

Kennel Practices

- 5.1 Each dog/cat kept at a kennel shall have an identification tag securely affixed to it. Such kennel identification tag shall have the name and phone number of the kennel contained on it. In addition, any dog or cat over the age of 16 weeks, that regularly resides in Ajax, shall have its municipal licence tag affixed to it at all times.
- 5.2 Every owner shall ensure that any person who operates or manages a kennel is adequately trained, skilled and conscientious in animal care, and has knowledge of the characteristics, care and handling of the species entrusted to their care and that said person shall supply such care during normal operating hours, on weekends and on holidays.

- 5.3 Every owner shall take all reasonable and humane steps to prevent the kennel from creating nuisances, including, but not limited to, barking, noises, garbage, odours etc.
- 5.4 Every owner of a kennel shall ensure that Ajax Animal Services is forthwith notified when a dog or cat escapes from the kennel.
- 5.5 Every owner shall ensure that a dog and/or a cat being sold without registration papers are advertised as a cross breed.
- 5.6 No owner shall sell a dog or cat that is less than eight (8) weeks of age.

Kennel Facilities

- 5.7 Every owner of a kennel shall comply with the following requirements:
- a) the area where dogs and/or cats are regularly kept, including but not limited to buildings, pens, structures and enclosures, shall be a separate building and shall not be attached to a building which is or can be used as a dwelling unit;
 - b) the area where dogs and/or cats are regularly kept, including but not limited to buildings, pens, structures and enclosures must conform to the Town of Ajax Zoning By-law and the Ontario Building Code, and their amendments, and must be maintained in such a manner as to be free of damage;
 - c) the areas where dogs and/or cats are regularly kept, including but not limited to buildings, pens, and structures shall be sufficiently heated or cooled when necessary to protect animals from cold or heat to provide for their health. The ambient temperature shall be consistent with the requirements of the specific breed of dog/cat being kept therein. Heating shall be deemed necessary when the inside ambient temperature of the facility falls below 10 degrees Celsius and cooling shall be deemed necessary when the temperature of the facility rises above 29 degrees Celsius;
 - d) the area where dogs and/or cats are regularly kept, including but not limited to buildings, pens, structures and enclosures shall be equipped with a lighting system that is capable of uniformly distributing natural and/or artificial lighting. The lighting shall be provided to permit routine inspection and to facilitate routine cleaning and the proper care and maintenance of the dogs/cats kept therein;
 - e) the area where dogs and/or cats are regularly kept, including but not limited to buildings, pens, structures and enclosures shall be so constructed and maintained as to provide each animal with a clean, dry and safe environment;
 - f) the interior areas where dogs and/or cats are regularly kept, including but not limited to buildings, pens, and structures shall have floors and walls soundly constructed of hard, durable material which is impervious to water;
 - g) all buildings, structures, pens and enclosures associated with the kennel shall be constructed to prevent the escape of any dog/cat kept therein;
 - h) an exercise area shall be provided on the premise so as to enable each dog or cat to exercise freely and easily so as to maintain physical health and well-being; and
 - i) safe and sanitary disposal facilities shall be available to eliminate animal and food wastes, bedding, and debris and to minimize vermin infestation, odours, and disease hazards. All waste materials shall be kept in sealed receptacles, and all waste shall be legally disposed of as often as necessary to ensure an odour free condition.

Animal Care

- 5.8 Every owner of a kennel shall:
- a) provide each dog/cat with clean, potable drinking water at all times and suitable food of sufficient quantity and quality to allow for normal growth and maintenance of normal body weight;
 - b) ensure that food and water receptacles are kept clean and disinfected and located so as to avoid contamination by urine and other excrement;

- c) ensure that enclosures used to house dogs/cats are of adequate size to permit any dog/cat housed therein to stand normally to its full height, to turn around, to lie down in a fully extended position, to exercise normal postural movements and experience necessary socialization without restrictions or overcrowding;
- d) ensure that dogs/cats are provided with the opportunity for periodic exercise sufficient to maintain good health and well-being;
- e) provide necessary veterinary medical care when a dog/cat exhibits signs of pain, illness or suffering;
- f) provide each dog/cat with clean bedding material and an area maintained at a temperature warm and dry enough so that no dog/cat will at any time be in discomfort due to chill or dampness;
- g) ensure that enclosures and surrounding areas are kept free of urine and other excrement and are regularly disinfected and free of offensive and disagreeable odours and free from vermin and rodents;
- h) ensure that any dog/cat that spends time in an outdoor enclosure or in an exercise area has shelter from the heat, cold, and wet and that the shelter has sufficient space to allow the dog/cat to turn freely and to easily stand, sit or lie;
- i) ensure where appropriate, litter pans containing clean litter are provided, at all times, for kittens and cats which are washed, disinfected and maintained as often as necessary to ensure odour free conditions;
- j) ensure that every dog/cat is kept in sanitary, well-bedded, well-ventilated, lighted, clean quarters maintained at a healthful temperature at all times for the health, welfare and comfort of the dogs/cats; and
- k) ensure that yards and any area associated with the kennel operation shall be cleaned at least once daily and the excrete and other waste resulting from the keeping of dogs/cats, shall be removed from the premises daily.

5.9 Dogs and cats being housed in interior enclosures, must be housed individually, unless the owner of the kennel has received written authorization from the owner of the dog/cat.

5.10 Regardless of section 5.9, when the following conditions exist, dogs/cats shall be housed individually, when housed in interior enclosures;

- a) a dog/cat is under treatment for communicable disease or is suspected of harbouring a communicable disease;
- b) any dog or cat exhibiting aggressive behaviour shall be housed separately from the rest of the dogs/cats in the kennel;
- c) dogs/cats six months or less of age shall not be housed with adult dogs/cats other than with their mothers; and
- d) females in heat shall not be placed with males except for breeding purposes.

6. DISEASE CONTROL

Breeding Kennel Provisions

6.1 No owner of a breeding kennel shall knowingly or not knowingly, sell any dog or cat suffering from:

- a) any infectious disease;
- b) nutritional deficiencies, including rickets or emaciation;
- c) internal or external parasites;
- d) fractures or congenital abnormalities affecting the general health of the dog or cat;

unless the condition has been assessed by a Veterinarian and can be treated and/or cured and does not affect the animal's quality of life.

General Kennel Provisions

6.2 Every owner of kennel shall ensure:

- a) All reasonable precautions are taken to prevent and control the spread of infectious or contagious diseases among the dogs and/or cats housed therein and that any animal indicating signs of sickness or disease is examined and appropriately treated within a reasonable amount of time after onset of illness, by a Veterinarian, and that such dog/cat is kept in a quarantine area, separate from other animals until such illness has been cured.
- b) Where a Veterinarian has identified that an animal is currently suffering from or has previously suffered from any of the conditions set out in Section 6.2 the kennel owner shall notify:
 - i) the purchaser (in the case of a breeding kennel); or
 - ii) the dog or cat's owner (in the case of a boarding kennel);

of the health concern and/or medical history and shall provide the purchaser or the owner of the animal with all documentation or treatment recommendations from the treating Veterinarian.

7. NATURE OF LICENCE

- 7.1 No person shall enjoy a vested right in the continuance of a kennel licence and the value of a licence shall be the property of the Town and shall remain so irrespective of the issue, renewal or revocation thereof.
- 7.2 The licences required by this By-law shall, unless they are expressed to be for a shorter or longer time, be for the period up to and including the 31st day of December in the year of issuance, unless they are sooner forfeited or revoked.
- 7.3 Any licence that has not been renewed as of December 31st in the year of its issuance or renewal shall expire on January 1st in the year following its issuance or renewal.
- 7.4 No fee shall be pro-rated for any portion of the year.
- 7.5 No licence shall be transferred or assigned and if an owner sells, leases or otherwise disposes of his/her interest in the trade, calling, business or occupation carried on at a kennel, their licence in respect to such kennel or activity shall, notwithstanding any other provision of this By-law, be revoked.
- 7.6 A duplicate licence may be issued by the Licensing Officer to replace any licence previously issued which has been lost, stolen or destroyed, upon written application by the licensee and payment of the fee as stated in the Town's Fees and Charges By-law.
- 7.7 Each kennel licence, when issued, shall be posted in a conspicuous place, on the interior of the building, near the main entrance of the premises so licensed.

8. APPLICATION, RENEWAL AND REVOCATION OF LICENCE

Application

- 8.1 Every applicant shall appear in person before a Licensing Officer and shall complete such licence application forms as may be provided from time to time by the Licensing Officer in accordance with the requirements of this By-law and shall provide, including but not limited to, the following:
 - a) proof of insurance in accordance with Section 7.3;
 - b) Canadian Police Clearance Letter dated within 30 days of the date of the application or where the applicant is a corporation, for every person who will be in charge of the kennel during the term of the licence;

- c) valid photo identification, satisfactory to the Licensing Officer; and
- d) payment to the Town as set forth in the Town's Fee and Charges By-law.

In the case of a kennel owned by a partnership such appearance shall be made by one of the partners, provided the application shall be signed by all of the partners, and in the case of a kennel owned by a corporation, such appearance shall be made by an officer of the corporation and not by an agent thereof.

- 8.2 Every person applying for a kennel licence shall file with the Licensing Officer documentation satisfactory to the Licensing Officer demonstrating the applicant's right to possess or occupy the premises and if any applicant is not the registered owner of the property upon which the kennel is to be located, such person shall file with the Licensing Officer a copy of their lease, if any, and a copy of any other document constituting or affecting the legal relationship relating to the said lands or premises between said applicant and the registered owner.
- 8.3 For the purposes of consumer protection in the event of personal injury and/or property damage every person who holds a kennel licence shall:
- a) provide and maintain Commercial General Liability insurance, by a licensed insurer within the Province of Ontario, subject to limits not less than $2,000,000.00 inclusive per occurrence for bodily injury, death, and damage to property including loss of use thereof arising from such activity;
 - b) ensure that the insurance be in the name of the owner and shall name the Town as an additional insured there under;
 - c) deliver a Certificate of Insurance listing the requirements as set out in (a) and (b) above which insurance shall remain in effect for the term of the Licence and shall not be cancellable except on 30 days prior notice to the Town; and
 - d) indemnify and save harmless the Town for all losses, costs, damages, charges and expenses whatsoever that may be incurred, sustained or paid by the Town resulting from the negligent acts, omissions, and/or breach of contract in the performance of the owner's obligations under this By-law.
- 8.4 Receipt of the application and/or the licence fee by the Town shall not represent approval of the application for the issuance of a licence nor shall it obligate the Town to issue such licence.
- 8.5 Without limiting the generality of any other provision in this By-law, persons associated in a partnership applying for a licence under this By-law shall file with their application a statutory declaration, in writing, signed by all members of the partnership, which declaration shall state:
- a) the full name of every partner and the address of his/her ordinary residence;
 - b) the name or names under which they carry on or intend to carry on business;
 - c) that the persons therein named are the only members of the partnership;
 - d) the mailing address for the partnership; and
 - e) the date the statutory declaration was entered into by each member.

The statutory declaration shall be dated within 30 days of the date of the application.

- 8.6 If any member of a partnership applying for a licence is a corporation, such corporation shall be deemed to be applying for an owner's licence as appropriate in place and stead of the partnership.
- 8.7 Without limiting the generality of any other provision in this By-law, every corporation applying for a licence shall file with the Licensing Officer, at the time of making its application, a copy of its articles of incorporation or other incorporating documents and shall file a statutory declaration, in writing signed by an Officer of the corporation, which declaration shall state:

- a) the full name of every shareholder and the address of his/her ordinary residence;
- b) the name or names under which it carries on or intends to carry on business;
- c) that the persons therein named are the only shareholders of the corporation; and
- d) the mailing address for the corporation.

The statutory declaration shall be dated within 30 days of the date of the application.

8.8 The Licensing Officer shall:

- a) receive and process all applications for licences and renewal of licences to be issued under this By-law;
- b) co-ordinate the enforcement of this By-law;
- c) generally perform all the administrative functions conferred upon them by this By-law;
- d) make or cause to be made all investigations and inspections which they deem necessary to determine whether an applicant meets the requirements of this By-law and all applicable laws;
- e) issue licences to persons who meet the requirements of this By-law;
- f) where a licence has been issued pursuant to this By-law and otherwise remains in full force and effect, renew the licences of persons who meet the requirements of this By-law.

Issuance

8.9 The Licensing Officer shall issue or renew the licence only where:

- a) all the information which the applicant is required to provide under this By-law has been provided, and verified;
- b) all the documents which the applicant is required to provide under this By-law have been provided;
- c) the licence fee is paid;
- d) the investigations do not disclose that the issuing of such licence may be adverse to the public interest;
- e) the Licensing Officer has no grounds to believe the applicant will not conduct themselves in accordance with the law or with honesty and integrity.

8.10 Where the Licensing Officer determines that a licence should not be issued as a result of any matter in Section 8.9 of this By-law, the Licensing Officer shall notify the applicant either verbally or in writing.

8.11 Where an applicant advises the Licensing Officer, in writing, and within 30 days of the applicant's notification, that they dispute the determination made by the Licensing Officer under Section 8.10 of this By-law or submits that the licence applied for should be issued despite that determination, the matter shall be referred forthwith to the Committee, which shall hear representations from the Licensing Officer and the applicant.

8.12 The Committee may authorize the Licensing Officer to issue the Licence where it concludes that the determination in Section 8.10 of this By-law, is not sufficient to justify refusing to issue the Licence. The Committee may impose special conditions on the licence.

8.13 Where the Committee determines that a Licence should not be issued the Town shall advise the applicant of such determination.

Conditions

8.14 The Licensing Officer may impose any special conditions, at any time, deemed appropriate to a licence to increase public safety or to minimize public nuisances including, but not limited to:

- a) establishing operating hours;
- b) limiting the number of dog and/or cats, kept at any time; and
- c) implementing noise control measures.

Suspension/Revocation

8.15 The Licensing Officer shall notify the licensee, that the licence shall be suspended or revoked, when:

- a) the Licensing Officer has cause to believe, on reasonable grounds, that the licensee will not carry on or engage in the business in accordance with the law or with honesty and integrity;
- b) the Licensee has been convicted of an offence which is a contravention of this By-law;
- c) the Licensing Officer has cause to believe that the licensee has failed to engage in business in accordance with the conditions imposed upon the licence.

8.16 Where a Licensee advises the Licensing Officer, in writing, and within 30 days, that they dispute the suspension or revocation of the licence, the matter shall be referred forthwith to the Committee, which shall hear representations from the Licensing Officer and the licensee and either confirm the suspension or revocation of the licence or reinstate the licence, with or without conditions, as it sees fit.

8.17 The Town shall advise the licensee of the Committee's determination.

8.18 Where the licensee does not dispute the suspension or revocation of the licence, within 30 days of the notification referred to in Section 8.15, the Licensing Officer shall forthwith suspend or revoke the Licence.

Suspension without hearing

8.19 The Licensing Officer may suspend the licence of any kennel for a period not to exceed 14 days, without a hearing, provided the Licensing Officer:

- a) is satisfied that the continuation of the business poses an immediate danger to the health or safety of any person or property; and
- b) has notified the licensee, either verbally or in writing, prior to the suspension of the licence, with the reasons for the suspension and provided the licensee with an opportunity to respond.

8.20 When a licence has been suspended in accordance with Section 8.19, the matter shall be referred forthwith, by the Licensing Officer, to the Committee, which shall hear representations from the Licensing Officer and the licensee.

8.21 The Committee may:

- a) reinstate the licence, with or without special conditions;
- b) suspend the licence for a specified period of time and may impose conditions upon the licence;
- c) revoke the licence.

9. CHANGE OF STATUS

9.1 Where there is any change in any of the particulars relating to a person licensed under this By-law, which particulars are required to be filed with the Town on applying for a licence under this By-law, such person shall report the change, in writing, to the Licensing Officer within 7 days of the change.

- 9.2 Where there is to be a change in the composition or the controlling interest of a partnership licensed under this By-law, the persons licensed hereunder in partnership shall obtain the approval of the Licensing Officer prior to such change taking effect. Where there has been any change in the controlling interest of the partnership by virtue of a number of transactions, the licence may be suspended or revoked, despite the Licensing Officer's prior approval of any one or more such transactions.
- 9.3 Where there is to be a change in the composition or the controlling interest of the shareholders of a corporation licensed under this By-law, the corporation shall obtain the approval of the Licensing Officer to such change prior. Where there has been any change in the controlling interest of the corporation by virtue of a number of transactions, the licence may be suspended or revoked, despite the Licensing Officer's prior approval of any one or more such transactions.

10. OFFENCE, PENALTY AND ENFORCEMENT

- 10.1 Any person who contravenes any provision of this By-law is guilty of an offence and, upon conviction is liable to a fine or penalty for each offence, exclusive of costs, as prescribed by the Provincial Offences Act.
- 10.2 The making of a false or intentionally misleading recital of fact, statement or representation in any agreement, statutory declaration or application form required by this By-law shall be deemed to be a violation of the provisions of this By-law.
- 10.3 Every person shall comply with the provisions of this By-law applicable to them whether or not they are licensed under this By-law.
- 10.4 Every owner of a kennel shall, at all times during the hours of operation, make available for inspection by the Licensing Officer, or a Police Officer the original of any document or record or Licence or register referred to in this By-law.
- 10.5 Every owner of a kennel shall, at all times during the hours of operation, permit the entry to and the inspection of the kennel by the Licensing Officer, a Municipal Law Enforcement Officer, or a Police Officer.
- 10.6 No person shall hinder or obstruct, or attempt to hinder or obstruct, the entry or the inspection of a kennel by the Licensing Officer, a Municipal Law Enforcement Officer, or a Police Officer.

11. VALIDITY

- 11.1 The provisions of this By-law shall apply to all lands and premises within the Town of Ajax.
- 11.2 If a court of competent jurisdiction should declare any section or part of a section of this By-law to be invalid, such section or part of a section shall not be construed as having persuaded or influenced Council to pass the remainder of this By-law and it is hereby declared that the remainder of this By-law shall be valid and shall remain in force.

12. REPEAL OF BY-LAW

- 12.1 This By-law shall come into full force and take effect on the date of passing and By-law #55-2012 shall be repealed.
